

Why would a no-call list be instated if certain groups, organizations, etc. would be allowed to by-pass the law? If the CBA is allowed to make calls, it can be assured that other organizations will follow suit and use this case as precedent, in turn at some point nullifying the law in Indiana as well as other states.